

A Workshop for Parents of International Students in the U.S.

Did you recently move to the United States? Is your child enrolled in elementary, middle or high school? Do you have questions about American schools and how they work? In this special back-to-school workshop, we will address many of your questions, including:

- ✦ How do parents typically communicate with teachers?
- ✦ What is the role of the counseling office?
- ✦ What are the roles of the principal and assistant principal?
- ✦ What is the Parent Teacher Association (PTA)?
- ✦ What are some things that parent volunteers do?
- ✦ What happens during a parent-teacher conference?
- ✦ How can I stay informed about my child's progress?
- ✦ What are "standardized tests" and how will they be used?
- ✦ Who makes the decisions about schools in the U.S.?
- ✦ What do American educators value?

We are here to help your family start the school year smoothly. We encourage you to attend a workshop and ask us questions about going to school in the United States. All questions are welcome! English Now! offers these workshops free of charge as a service to the community. Please see our contact information below to register for one of the following:
