Our Unique Approach

- Small classes. Personalized approach. Classes for teens enroll a maximum of six students. Classes for youth aged eight to 12 are even smaller, with groups of two or three students.
- Plan now for the summer! (Have you noticed that "Summer Camp" registration comes early in the Washington, D.C. area?) English classes for specifically designed for teens and youth.
- For students who live in the U.S., focus on English language studies over Spring Break or during the summer months. For students visiting the U.S., a great intensive English experience during your stay. And remember: adult classes are available year-round.
